Hear Ye!

Junior Town
Crier Competition

Time: 12.00 (midday)
Outside St Paul's Church

This is a light-hearted, family-friendly event designed, just for fun.

Hear ye, hear ye! All loud and enthusiastic children are invited to take part in our fun
Junior Town Crier Competition

Open to both boys and girls, we'll provide everything needed, including the traditional costume (tricorn hat, red waistcoat and jabot), a bell and a short script.

Budding criers are also welcome to create and perform their own original cries!

The competition will be judged by Honiton's Town Crier, Caroline Kolek, together with former Town Crier, Dave Retter.

Music

Honiton
Town Band

Round off the evening with a rousing concert from Honiton Town Band. This is a free event. Why not bring a picnic?

19.00 at the Millenium Green

Storytelling

Gather outside Honiton Family Church for Isabella's Story Bicycle.
Expect moments of magic, oodles of fun and a fine tale told!

Sessions at 11.30, 13.00 & 14.30

Honiton
Family Church

Discover

Treasure
Hunt

Set off on a story-filled adventure around town.
Follow the trail and solve the clues. Claim a tasty treat at the finish. A fresh way to explore the town!

Info & Thanks

In case of wet weather, some scheduled events will move to Mackarness Hall.

Last minute updates to the programme will be posted on our website.

Honiton Market Charter Day is proudly presented by Honiton Town Council, with support from Tonic Creatives.

The nominated charity for 2026 is Hospiscare, caring in the heart of Devon.

A heartfelt thank you to everyone who has contributed to this year's celebration.

This event would not have been possible without the support from local businesses, community organisations, volunteers, performers, and all those who have joined us and shown their support throughout the day.

Thank you!
